

Novi Parks, Recreation, and Cultural Services

Code of Conduct

Novi Parks, Recreation, and Cultural Services believes participating in sports programs are an integral part of a child's development as well as improving the quality of life for its participants. Following these guidelines, Novi Parks expects coaches, spectators and participants to conduct themselves in a manner that promotes sportsmanship, integrity, and spirit of the program.

Coaches Code of Conduct

- Treat each coach, player, official, parent and administrator with respect and dignity.
- Provide a safe environment for players at all times.
- Be knowledgeable in the rules of the sport and teach these rules to the players.
- Use coaching techniques appropriate for all players, remembering the large range of emotional and physical development of players in the same age group.
- Organize all games and practices so that all players are challenged and have an equal opportunity to participate.
- If a coach is coaching their own child, they are to treat him/her just like the other players on the team.
- Lead by example in demonstrating fair play and sportsmanship to all players.
- Provide a sports environment that is free of drugs, tobacco and alcohol, and refrain from their use at all youth sports events and practices.
- Remember above all, the game is for the children, not the adults.
